CIVIC BODY AGAINST HIGH SCHOOL "FRATS"

Association Condemns Societies—Approves Teachers' Pensions.

Pensions for teachers were indorsed and a resolution was passed declaring high school fraternities and sororities "out of place and a detriment to public schools," at a meeting of the Henry D. Cooke Home and School Association, in Cooke School last night.

This is the first association to go on record opposing secret societies. Action was taken after a speech by Miss Alice Deal, of the McKinley Manual Training School.

She said that 85 per cent of the public high school teachers of Washington are opposed to fraternities and sororities. In indorsing the pension bill the association followed many civic bodies and other organizations.

The Federation of Citizens' Associations yesterday invited members of the Governors' Conference in session at the New Willard to co-operate with it for a permanent exhibit of the States in Washington.

President Charles R. Shreve and Chairman Edward P. Colladay, of a special committee, are discussing the pre-natural educational exhibit with the governors.

The governors have already been invited to participate in a conference on March 3 to discuss the permanent exhibit. Chairman Harper, of a special committee, has expressed his approval of the exhibition and has promised co-operation.

NEBRASKANS HEAR GUESTS.

The Nebraska State Association met last night at the Washington Club, Seventeenth and K streets. Governor-elect Keith Neville made an address on the work of the association and was followed by Claude N. Bennett, who told of "The Last Six Presidents." The Congressional delegation from Nebraska was present.

A supper followed the speaking.

PRESIDENT NOMINATES TWO TO D. C. PLACES

Names of H. S. Baker, Excise Board, and W. Hitz, Judiciary, Reach Senate.

President Wilson yesterday sent to the Senate the nomination of Henry S. Baker for a second term of three years as excise commissioner of the District. He also sent in the name of William Hitz as associate justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. Both these appointments were made during the recess of Congress.

Among other appointments was that of Brig. Gen. John J. Pershing, in command of the punitive expedition in Mexico, to be a major general of the regular army. Gen. Pershing is a son-in-law of Senator Warren, of Wyoming, who for many years was chairman of the Military Affairs Committee.

The following colonels were designated brigadier generals: Eben Swift, Francis H. French, and Charles G. Treat, of the general staff, and Edwin St. J. Greble, of the Sixth Field Artillery.

Another appointment was that of William F. Wolfe, of La Crosse, Wis., to be United States attorney for the Western district of his State. Mr. Wolfe was the Democratic candidate against Senator La Follette in the last election and was defeated.

Wintrop More Daniels was reappointed a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"EVERY CITY SHOULD BE PORT FOR AIRCRAFT"

New York Delegate to Civic Convention Describes Progress in Aviation.

The twelfth annual convention of the American Civic Association ended late yesterday after two sessions.

The afternoon session was devoted to two papers, one on "Economic Impulse of Industrial Housing," by C. C. Wheat, of Woods Hole, Mass., and another on "Housing Surgery for Dublin, Ireland," by Secretary Richard S. Watrous.

Henry Needhouse, delegate from New York, a member of the Aero Club of America and the American Institute of Efficiency, said "The time has come when every city must establish aerodrome, terminals where aircraft passengers and merchandise can land."

"We are growing near to time when we shall have airmen," said Mr. Needhouse. "We have the engineers to build them, large leather motors to drive them, instruments to operate them, the aviators to pilot them. There are also financiers ready to finance the construction of air lines and operate scores of these big liners. All this reminds us that today, aircraft, by making every place an airport, makes it imperative to have anti-aircraft defenses for every place."

A Federal bureau of cities was urged upon the association by Andrew W. Crawford, of Philadelphia. He said it should bear the same relation to municipal warfare that the Department of Agriculture bears to the farm.

The next convention will be held in St. Louis.

BACKER OF PENSIONS LAUDS THE TEACHERS

Congressman Lloyd Addresses Emery Eckington School Association.

Speaking before the Emery Eckington Home and School Association last night, Congressman James P. Lloyd said he introduced in the House yesterday a bill for the teachers' pension bill, which he introduced in the House yesterday.

"There is no more valuable element in a child's life than his school teacher. The child comes under the jurisdiction of the teacher when only 6 years old and is controlled by her until he is practically matured."

"When the teacher reaches an age where she is no longer able to give her best efforts to the child, after devoting the greater part of her life to his welfare, she should not be thrown out, but adequate provision should be made for her."

He said he hoped to see the American flag in every schoolroom from Maine to California, as an emblem of true citizenship.

The association unanimously adopted a resolution offered by N. M. Polk, endorsing the teachers' pension bill and thanking Mr. Lloyd.

F. M. DeGast, of the Y. M. C. A., addressed the society on "The Boy."

"There is no greater need in the world," he said, "than the proper handling of the future men of the country between 12 and 19 years old."

CAPT. J. I. MCCONNELL DIES.
